New Business

- Intro, Presentation, Slideshow: Ardith Trumpy introduced the mosaic mural artist, Danielle Casali. Danielle spoke to the gathering of over 40 community members. She shared her art education, her career projects and her family. She shared the process that we will be going through in brainstorming ideas for the theme of the mural. She shared a slideshow presentation of her mural projects completed in Batavia, Geneva, DeKalb and Elmhurst.
- Brainstorming Mural Design: Ardith passed out a drawing of the building that the mosaic mural will be hung on. (west wall of the South Moon BBQ building, 100 E Lincoln Hwy) Danielle asked each group to brainstorm and write down what represents life in Hinckley to each of us. She also asked us to doodle a design on the drawing. There was a lot of great conversations at the 4 tables of community members.

Wrap-up and Final Questions: Danielle asked one individual from each table to briefly share their ideas. There was a common theme amongst the tables: barn, corn stalk, combine, basketball, soccer ball, Harlem Globetrotters, train, creek, farm community. It was also suggested that Danielle visit the Hinckley Historical Society and review the many photos of the past for additional ideas. She will do that next week along with the assistance of Julie Morsch. In the next few weeks, Danielle will begin sending Ardith rough sketches.
